1 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

In 2023, the City of Corona conducted a Community Survey to better understand community priorities, identify areas for improvement, and assess resident perceptions regarding city services and community characteristics. This survey builds on the foundation of The National Community Survey conducted in 2022.

In total, 972 residents responded to the 2023 survey invitation. Residents were asked 22 perception questions, all corresponding to the City's Strategic Plan metrics. Compared with 2022, residents' perceptions of the City of Corona improved across almost all categories. The most significant improvements were in the residents' perceptions regarding Corona's overall image and reputation, the openness and acceptance of people of diverse backgrounds, the overall appearance of Corona, and the City's efforts to reduce homelessness. The singular item that had a lower percent than 2022 was the residents' feeling of safety in their neighborhood during the day. The areas that showed the least improvement were the overall perception of Corona as a place to live, and Corona as a place to raise children, which already had very high positive perception percentages.

2 METHODS

2.1 SURVEY QUESTIONS

The 2023 Community Survey was developed and distributed by the City of Corona. The National Community Survey, administered by POLCO in 2022, utilized a standard set of benchmarked questions and a supplemental questionnaire with questions tied to the City's Strategic Plan. To increase participation and decrease the time burden on the participants, the 2023 survey contained only the specific questions related to the City's Strategic Plan.

2.2 SAMPLE SELECTION

All addresses present in the City of Corona's geodatabase that were classified as a Single Family or Multi Family Residence were used to create a list of potential survey participants. 1,400 residences were randomly selected per district, for a total of 7000 randomly selected households throughout the city. A distribution list was created by combining the randomly selected households with email contact information obtained from utility, animal license, and recreation centers data. A post survey geographical analysis was conducted to ensure that the respondents were dispersed throughout each district and the city.

2.3 CONDUCTING THE SURVEY

The survey was conducted between June 30th and September 27th, 2023. The survey was distributed first by email invitation and second with a mailed paper survey. The email list was compiled using utility, animal license, and recreation center data. All surveys included a unique link and QR code to prevent a respondent from participating more than once. Four follow-up emails were sent to encourage participation before a printed version of the survey was distributed. Participants who completed the paper survey were verified that they had not completed the online survey, and then had their responses entered into the dataset by staff.

972 residents completed the survey, yielding a 13.9% response rate, and a 95% level of confidence with a margin of error of 3.1%.

The survey was also available for open participation on the City's website. 232 responses were received using this open participation method. Those responses were collected separately to maintain the integrity of the randomly generated, scientific sample.

2.4 DEMOGRAPHICS

The following table provides a demographic comparison of survey respondents from the 2023 Community Survey and the 2022 POLCO survey and the demographic profile derived from Census 2010 and American Community Survey 2020 data.

	Female 18-34	5%	3%	16%
	Female 35-54	26%	19%	19%
	Female 55+	27%	34%	15%

Overall, the 2023 participant's demographic and housing characteristics are similar to the 2022 Community survey. Detached and owned households were sampled at a higher rate than attached and rented households. There was also an increase in participation of those in the over 55 age category.

The City added two response options for race that are not present in the Census Bureau data ("prefer not to say" and "other"). This protocol is shown to increase response rates by allowing respondents the flexibility to not declare or declare multiple categories. Even though this category represents approximately 22% of the respondents surveyed, the respondent race data across categories is reasonably representative of Census estimates.

Self-Description	2023 Survey	Census Bureau
White alone	62.7%	50.1%
Black or African American	4.5%	6.0%
Asian	8.7%	10.3%
American Indian and Alaska Native	1.8%	0.8%
Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander	0.6%	0.4%
Other/Prefer not to say	21.7%

2.5 DATA ANALYSIS

The results of the 2023 survey are reported directly and can be best understood in context of their relationship to the 2022 results. The results are organized to align with the goals in the City's Strategic Plan. Using the metrics from the Strategic Plan and the reporting style of the 2022 POLCO survey, each question is reported as the percent of respondents answering "good" or "excellent". The 2023 responses are compared to the 2022 responses, with a percent difference noted in a separate column.

The results of the open response sample are reported separately and compared to the scientific sample at the end of the report. Because of known sample self-selection patterns and negative response bias, open survey responses tend to be more negative than those conducted using a controlled sampling procedure. These are not representative and are not reported in the Strategic Plan updates. This report provides a comparison of the two sample responses for transparency purposes only.
