A request for development proposals was launched late October 2020 to obtain affordable housing proposal for the 4.82-acre lot purchased by the housing successor (from RCTC). Six (6) development proposal were received. Development proposals focus on family units and include permanent supportive housing units. A proposal was selected in FY 21 and negotiations for a new 135-unit affordable housing project are underway in FY22. It is anticipated 6 to 7.5 million dollars of housing funds and federal funds will be spent on the creation of new housing units.
