TUESDAY, JUNE 11: BEAUTIES & BEASTS TANGOS TO TARANTULAS

If music were always beautiful and sweet, wouldn't life get a little boring? Tarantulas, bumblebees, and rattlesnakes are scary, and delightful, musical subjects. Find out how they compare to swans, dancing dolls, and popcorn...yes, popcorn!

TUESDAY, JUNE 25: WHISTLING BIRDS & BABBLING BROOKS THE MUSIC OF VIVALDI

Mr. Stein will bring the music and poetry of Vivaldi's Four Seasons to life by demonstrating how the music is inspired by the poetry, and how nature comes alive in the music of this talented Italian. Music by Mozart, Kreisler, and Copland (Hoe Down) will also be performed.

TUESDAY, JULY 9: ORANGE BLOSSOM SPECIAL JAZZ AND BLUEGRASS FIDDLE

Texas boasts some great Bluegrass fiddlers and the ragtime king, Scott Joplin. Enjoy this all-time audience favorite with the energy of a speeding train. You'll hear the humorous Pineapple Rag and the always exciting The Devil Went Down to Georgia.

TUESDAY, JULY 23: MOZART & BEETHOVEN FOR CHILDREN

Childhood affects composers in many different ways. Bach's mother read him Bible stories, Mozart was charming kings and queens by the time he was six, and Beethoven had lessons in the middle of the night. Their music has delighted listeners for two and a half centuries.
