En su primera recopilación de poesías bilingües para niños, José Chavez comparte reflexiones líricas que iluminan a un joven México-Americano que ve las estrellas bailar en el cielo nocturno, anhela navegar a México, pinta la sonrisa de su madre, y le encanta el chile verde de su abuela.

This event is made possible in part through California Library Literacy Services, a statewide program of the California State Library, supported by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act administered by the State Librarian.
