Attachments: Discussion to Rename Eagle Glen Ball Field

Mr. David Montgomery-Scott, Library and Recreation Services Director, introduced item and request from a citizen to rename a ball field at Eagle Glen Park in honor of victims of the Las Vegas Shooting that occurred in October of 2017. Mr. Montgomery-Scott provided the committee with three possible options for renaming/ commemoration. Mr. Montgomery-Scott provided requirement and process for the Naming Rights, Honorary Naming and Park Memorial Program. Mr. Montgomery- Scott gave background information on the event and the local significance to Corona. Mr. Montgomery- Scott gave an alternative option of doing a Remembrance Field and provided details of the requirements and process.

Ms. Connie Newhan, Library Board of Trustees Vice Chair, inquired if the Remembrance Field would allow for future plaques. Staff responded, yes, that is a possibility.

After reviewing all the options presented the Committee's recommendation was to move forward with Remembrance Field, renaming the ball field in remembrance of all Las Vegas Shooting Victims associated with Corona.
